From: Awards Committee

Dear Aleks:

The economics department at Washington University recently initiated a prize for the best Teaching Assistant. Many excellent candidates were nominated by the faculty for this year's award. The Awards Committee is very pleased to announce that you are one of two winners of the Best TA Award for 2007-2008. You received outstanding nominations for your TA work in both the fall and spring semesters. You will receive a check for $1200 in recognition of your service to the department. Congratulations on your achievement!!

Sincerely,

Bruce Petersen
